The Dalai Lama Graduate Scholarship

GUIDELINE RENEWAL APPLICATION 2022-23

The Board of Directors of the Gaden Phodrang Foundation of the Dalai Lama hope that you are having a successful academic year. Since you are nearing the end of the academic year, we would like to review the status of those awardees that wish to renew their scholarship for the year 2022-23.

Requirements to renew scholarships for the year 2022-23 are listed below. In addition to an online application, you are requested to submit the following documents to be considered for renewal of scholarship:

- Written progress statement on your work toward the degree – include any plans for the immediate future, including summer employment or research. Please limit your statement to two pages.
- Letter of good standing from your university registrar indicating your full-time student status and current GPA or academic marks.
- Updated CV
- An official transcript reflecting the latest grades
- Financial statement. Please indicate any changes in financial status or university funding for 2021. Include a copy of your latest income tax return, or SAR/FAFSA forms if applicable
- Copy of valid Green Book with Dhanglang Chatrel dues paid up to 2021 (1st page, 2nd page and last paid page)
- Renewal applicants should send in a written progress report of 500 words encompassing their studies as well as extra-curricular activities.

Deadline

The complete application form, along with all supporting documents must be received online on or before April 24, 2022 (11:59 PM Zurich: GMT+1). All information provided in the application must be complete, correct and submitted by time. Incomplete applications as well as submissions after the deadline will not qualify for grant consideration.

All applications will be acknowledged by email. The applications are evaluated by the independent Selection Committee of the Dalai Lama Graduate Scholarship program. Final decisions are communicated by email in July 2022.
