The Dalai Lama Graduate Scholarship 2024-25

GUIDELINE FOR RENEWAL APPLICATION

Requirements to renew scholarships for the year 2024-25 are listed below. In addition to an online application, you are requested to submit online the following documents to be considered for renewal of the scholarship:

- ☐ Written progress statement on your work toward the degree – include any plans for the immediate future, including summer employment or research. Please limit your statement to two pages.
- ☐ Letter of good standing from your university registrar indicating your full-time student status and current GPA or academic marks.
- ☐ Updated Curriculum vitae
- ☐ An official transcript reflecting the latest grades
- ☐ Financial statement. Please indicate any changes in financial status or university funding for 2024. Include a copy of your latest income tax return or SAR/FAFSA forms if applicable
- ☐ Copy of valid Green Book showing chatrel dues paid up to 2023 (include 1st page, 2nd page, and last paid page)
- ☐ Renewal applicants should send in a written progress report of 500 words encompassing their studies as well as extra-curricular activities.

Deadline

The complete application form and supporting documents must be received online on or before April 21, 2024 (11:59 PM Zurich: GMT+1). All information provided in the application must be complete, correct, and submitted on time. Please note that after the deadline, the webform will not be accessible, and late submissions as well as incomplete applications will not be accepted.

All applicants will receive an email confirmation upon receipt of their application. The independent Selection Committee of the Dalai Lama Graduate Scholarship program will review and evaluate the renewal applications thoroughly. Kindly note that renewal is not automatic.
